COOL IDEAS TO HELP YOU SAVE MONEY (& THE PLANET) THIS SUMMER!

Keep cool and save money at the Pinellas Living green Expo

The Pinellas Living Green Expo returns to Clearwater's Harborview Center with another 2 full days of seminars, exhibits, plain talk about how to reduce your carbon footprint and do your part to preserve our dwindling natural resources. The popular event, now in its' 4th year, is FREE and will be open to the public on Saturday May 2nd and Sunday May 3rd.

The list of exhibitors and vendors has grown to more than 130 and Expo guests will be able to learn about the most cost effective and environmentally responsible methods of creating a more sustainable way of living here on Florida's West Coast.

The Expo brings Progress Energy expert Ellen Tarantur to the main exhibit floor. She knows what you need to do. It's easy to learn the energy-efficiency tips that will lower your monthly energy bill...guaranteed! At the Expo you can sign up for a FREE Home Energy Check.

Speaking of reducing your carbon footprint...how about getting out of the car and onto a bicycle? Cheryl Stacks, from the City of St. Petersburg has the latest information on riding to work...on 2 wheels. Learn how to maintain and outfit your bike, find secure bike parking, pick your route...and how to stay safe at night.

The theme of the Pinellas Living Green Expo is Save Money...Save the Environment.

The Pinellas Living Green Expo will be open from 9am - 5pm on Saturday...and from 10am - 4pm on Sunday. The HarborView Center is located at 300 Cleveland St. in Clearwater. Admission is FREE! Parking is FREE! Come spend the day with us.
